A $50 retainer is due along with this form to hold and confirm your date. The balance is payable upon completion of the job. Checks can be made to Holly Buford.

Outdoor events must have an indoor contingency plan for bad weather. If the event is cancelled, the deposit will serve as payment.

Should the Balloon Cowgirl be unable to perform due to illness/injury, a suitable replacement will be sent. In case this is not possible, your money will be refunded and a free event made available to you in the future, subject to performer availability.

The performance includes balloons and supplies. Balloons are latex. The performer is not responsible for the possible allergic reactions of your guests.

Balloons are a possible choking hazard and are given to children over the age of 3. Balloons are given to the parents of children under the age of 3.
